The University of Cambridge welcomes you to the first Postgraduate Open Day

2 November 2016, 10.30–16.30

The Postgraduate Open Day is an opportunity to find out more about the University and Colleges, enabling you to get a feel for our wide-ranging postgraduate community as well as having the opportunity to meet staff and interact with current students.

Register now for tickets at www.graduate.study.cam.ac.uk/open-days-and-events

- presentations on Master’s and PhD courses
- tours of University facilities, Departments and Colleges
- information about the admissions process, funding opportunities, accommodation, disability resources and careers advice
- advice available from the International Student Team

E: postgradopenday@admin.cam.ac.uk  T: 01223 338394